Specials are available while supplies last

Thank you for choosing to dine at El Corral tonight! We promise to treat to you with respect, understanding, and kindness as we all navigate this new normal. We humbly request the same from you this evening.

We are following federal, state, and local mandates. This includes (but is not limited to):

Daily wellness checks for all staff

Mask and glove wearing

Frequent handwashing

Fewer tables in our dining rooms

Tables moved at least 6 feet apart

Hand sanitizer stations

Disposable menus

Enhanced sanitation of dining and common areas

Signage with guidelines

No groups waiting together in the lobby

Recent local mandates require that patrons wear a face covering any time they are not seated at their table. We appreciate your cooperation with this local mandate.

Some of the new regulations will be obvious, and some are happening behind the scenes. These new regulations may feel odd at times, and we may not always run as smoothly as normal in the beginning. The health and safety of our guests and team is our number one priority. If you have any concerns please speak up. We want everyone to have an enjoyable and stress-free experience.

Thank you for supporting a locally owned small business. El Corral has been around for over 80 years, and we hope to be around for 80 more. Your patience and support is so very appreciated by us!
